

BA-12
Noah Worthington House
3519 Cabot Road
(off Marriottsville Road)
Granite

c. 1830

Built of granite from local sources, this 2 1/2-story stone house was built in a Georgian style, and is five bays wide with a deeply sloping roofline and a rear ell. This ordinary country house had been enlarged to Georgian proportions. It survives on one lot of the subdivision known as King's Park Estates, and was restored by the present owner, Wilson Herrera. It is now occupied by tenants.
